December 2019

From the Faithful Navigator

My wife and I are privileged to be able to go on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Rome in December. This is something we have long wanted to do and the opportunity came for us to do so. We believe it will be a life changing experience for us and very much are looking forward to walk in the land our Lord walked and in the home of our Catholic faith. We beg the generosity of your prayers for a safe pilgrimage for us and all of the other pilgrims that are going too. We will certainly be praying for you. Our Christmas party is only about one month away and reservations have been slow in coming. I hope that you will attend so we can celebrate the season together. Please see the note at end of this newsletter on who to contact. I also want to let you know that those who wish to participate in our Honor Guard activities will be allowed to participate if they don't have the new official regalia by wearing their tuxedo, baldric and gloves. This decision will be made on a case to case basis dependent on what the occasion is and will be noted by the Worthy Commander in his regular report. May God Bless you richly this coming Advent and Christmas Season. Vivat Jesus!

SK Lambert Fleck III, Faithful Navigator
