January 2018

From the Faithful Navigator

Well, another year come and gone and what a strange year for the 4th degree. Some things that come to mind was the Supreme meeting in St. Louis and the debut of the new regalia and ensuing discussions that followed along with our own Exemplification which was affected. Let's hope for a calmer new year in that arena. Thank you to all who attended our Christmas Dinner at Mariah's. Our next meeting is our annual Chili/Soup dinner/meeting at Springfield North Council #4175 on January 9th, with dinner starting at 6:30pm. Please bring your favorite soup, or chili for all to share. I want to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

SK Andy Krug, Faithful Navigator

Honor Guard

We are at the beginning of a new year and now is a good time to look at your regalia and equipment to make sure they are in good repair and swords shined up. When we are in our regalia, we are an especially visible arm of the Knights of Columbus. I believe, as I know you do too, we need to be at our sharpest when we are in our regalia. If you make New Year's resolutions, why not make one to be more involved in the New Year with our Honor Guard events? Vivat Jesus!

SK Lambert Fleck III, Commander
