November 2018

From the Faithful Navigator

I wish to begin by saying thank you to PFN Gary Schmidt for heading up our Founder's Day meal at our October meeting, and to his work crew and the Ladies who assisted with refreshments. A good meal was had by those attending. Also a thank you to Council 3914 Riverton for being the gracious hosts they always are for the Bishop Griffin Assembly. We celebrate October as Right to Life month and the month we celebrate the great Prayer of the Rosary. We, as Knights, must support the Right to Life and defend those most vulnerable to having their God given lives ended outside of God's Divine Plan. The Rosary given to us by our Holy Mother Mary provides us with a brilliant pathway to sanctity and is a most excellent weapon against evil. I hope you will participate in one of the many opportunities to support Life and pray the Holy Rosary daily. I hope you are enjoying the beautiful fall weather.

May God's Blessings be upon you and your loved ones!

SK Lambert Fleck III, Faithful Navigator

Honor Guard

Sir Knights,

I would like to take this moment to encourage those that have the regalia to come participate in these events with us as well. We will always welcome you! Please consider making the effort to be at our Honor Guard events as often as you can and RSVP to me those you will attend.

God Bless You.

Vivat Jesus!

SK Lambert Fleck IV, Commander

Sir Knights Ladies Auxiliary

We must thank all the Sir Knights who cooked up and served us such a delicious Founder day's meal. It was such a delight in sharing this special 65th Anniversary of the Ladies Auxiliary with not only our Ladies and Sir Knights but some very special guests. We welcomed back some previous presidents of the Ladies Auxiliary. We must also recognize our very own Berta Risse as the longest standing member of the Ladies Auxiliary. After good food and fellowship we had a very fruitful meeting, please remember all those who need our prayers. Next meeting will be in Sherman on Tuesday November 13th 7:00pm; those bringing desserts are Joyce Sullivan, Pat Heetel, Kathy Fleck, Cherri Mennemeyer and Patty Vaughn.

"One kind word can change someone's entire day."

God Bless You Always

Kathy Fleck, Ladies Auxiliary President
