From the Faithful Navigator

Sir Knights,

I hope this newsletter finds you all safe, healthy, and happy! I also hope that you all remain healthy and resume the various ministries of our Lord as you are able.

Today's reading at Mass and the Homily delivered by our Priest struck a chord with me. In Joshua 24:15, he says to the people, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." This came after he had gathered the people and asked who they would follow: The Gods of the people across the river? The Gods of the Amorites in whose land they dwelled? Or God, who had led them from slavery and kept them safe? Father Maurice explained, life is full of choices. Joshua seen a critical choice that needed to be made and asked all the tribes of Israel to do the same. How often today are we not confronted by choices throughout our day? Many times, people make choices without a thought of any consequence that may come from said choice because instant gratification is much more fulfilling at that juncture in time. However, I ask you to think of your choices like this: how is my choice going to serve the Lord? Will it serve him well? Will I have to answer for it when I meet him? This is something that only you can answer for your choices in life. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

Vivat Jesus!
